Dear Omar:

I just wanted to drop you a line to tell you how pleased we are with Infinite Conferencing.

We were using a national conference call company and spent over $1,500 on conference calls for just one executive search. If we had known about Infinite Conferencing then, we would have saved hundreds of dollars on that one search process alone. Switching to Infinite has had a great impact on our budget.

The consultants are very happy with your system's ease of use, dependability, and availability. Some of them were a little leery of trying a new system, but once they "test drove" it, they were hooked. Thanks for making me look good for making the recommendation to switch to your system.

Sincerely,

Suzanne Howarth
Administrative Manager
